Marty Feldman, B.A. University of California-Berkeley 1982, J.D. Georgetown Law School 1985, teaches all the classes himself. He uses a semi-private tutoring method whereby the students are taught strategies as they complete timed test sections of real PSATs, SATs & ACT. Since 1988, Marty has been one of the most successful and dependable SAT/ACT tutors in Boca Raton, Parkland and Coral Springs, and you can count on him to provide personal attention. Also, call Marty four years later for one-on-one tutoring for the LSAT, GRE, GMAT and Teacher Certification!

My SAT prep during the school year is a pay-one-price set of classes wherein you attend as often as you want. No material is repeated, and the student benefits greatly from a flexible schedule. Also unique is that I, the owner, tutor the kids. Unused SAT/ACT classes do not carry over to later courses.

I also tutor privately if you attend at least one SAT or ACT course so that the student receives substantial simulation training in the areas of stamina, speed, concentration and anxiety control. Privates are most useful for an early start before any course, and to fill in during off-months.

Summer 2018 SAT/ACT/PSAT Prep

The summer classes are at my Wiles Road office, near 441 and not far from Boca.
Each summer set includes test strategies, math and verbal review, and tips in all areas of reading, writing, and analytical thinking. Homework will be checked.

The first 20 minutes in June and July is tutoring time, then group simulation time. As with any training, a much greater score improvement results from working on it periodically. A student who paid $495 may return for an SAT or ACT set for just $295 (all new material). Unused classes do not carry over.
