Marty Feldman, B.A. University of California-Berkeley 1982, J.D. Georgetown Law School 1985, teaches all the classes himself. He uses a semi-private tutoring method whereby the students are taught strategies as they complete timed test sections of real PSATs, SATs & ACT. Since 1988, Marty has been one of the most successful and dependable SAT/ACT tutors in Boca Raton, Parkland and Coral Springs, and you can count on him to provide personal attention. Also, call Marty four years later for one-on-one tutoring for the LSAT, GRE, GMAT and Teacher Certification!

My SAT prep during the school year is a pay-one-price month of classes wherein you attend as often as you want during the month. No material is repeated throughout, and the student benefits greatly from a flexible schedule. Also special is that I, the owner, tutor the kids. A full SAT prep is done in each town. Unused SAT/ACT classes do not carry over to later courses.

I also tutor privately, but you must attend at least one SAT or ACT course so that the student receives substantial simulation training in the areas of stamina, speed, concentration and anxiety control. Privates are most useful for an early start before any course, and to fill in during off-months.
